About Steel Dynamics, Inc.:

Steel Dynamics, Inc. is a steel producer and metals recycler. STLD operates in three segments: steel operations, metals recycling and ferrous resources operations, and steel fabrication operations. During 2008 and 2009 STLD recorded annual revenues of $8 billion and $4 billion, respectively, and had annual steel shipments of 5.6 million tons and 4.0 million tons, respectively. STLD is one of the largest steel producers and one of the largest metals recyclers in the United States based on current estimated annual steelmaking capability and actual metals recycling shipping volumes. STLD's metal recycling and ferrous resource operations source and process scrap metals, including both ferrous and nonferrous materials and produce iron. STLD operates five electric furnace mini-mills, over 70 metals recycling and processing locations, and three steel fabrication facilities. Founded in 1993, STLD employs about 6,000 individuals.
